The Ingenious Scheme by Which the Rooms Now Get Racing Results and the Telegraph Company, With No Direct Connection With Lawbreakers, Helps.

Ever since the directors of the Western Union Telegra h Company decreed last summer that the leasing of wires to poolrooms must stop, poolroom keepers have had to get their news from the tracks by a roundabout route, the turnings and twistings of which are seldom discussed, even in the inner circles. This winter, however, the poolrooms, east, west, north and south, will get their racing reports by about as direct routes as possible, in part, at least, through the agencies of the Postal Telegraph Company.

By the arrangements which have been made the company will have no direct business relations with the poolroom keepers, but all the same the racing reports from most of the winter tracks will pass over Postal wires before they get to the

The scheme of news transmission is ingenious. From now until early in April there will be racing on six tracks in the South and West. Just now there is racing at the Oakland course in San Francisco, at Ascot Park in Los Angeles, and at New Orleans. When the Oakland meeting is over, the meeting at Ingleside, near there, will begin. Between January and April there will be two meetings at Hot Springs. Ark, one at the Oaklawn track and the other at Essex Park. At all but two of these meetings the Posta! Telegraph Company will play a highly im portant part in disseminating the news, but, so it was said vesterday, with never a direct connection

Of the three tracks at which meetings are now being run off, the Postal takes care of the news at two, the Oakland track and the track at New Orleans. The Western Union has its wires to Los Angeles track, but any racing reports for the use of pool rooms must be filed there like all other commercial messages. The New Orleans people decided to break with the Western Union company some time after the close Union company some time after the close of its meeting last season.

One John Paine, who was a telegraph

One John Paine, who was a telegraph operator years ago and who now runs two poolrooms at Covington, Ky., just across from Cin cinnati, heard about the break between the Crescent City Jockey Club and the Western Union and at once got into communication with President Bush of the New Orleans association. Paine told Bush that he'd like to bid for the contract the Western Union people had.

"What'll you do with it after you get it?" Bush asked. "Have you a telegraph company concealed about you anywhere?"

"Never mind about that," Paine replied. "If you'll give me the exclusive privi-reported reply.

"You're on," said Bush, and the necessary papers were drawn.

Paine had had for, some time an office in Cincinnati. There were some persons who said that the office was a sort of centre for the receipts and distribution of racing news to Paine's own followers and to a few others to whom he said he sold his own

Shortly after Paine got his concession from Bush, it was announced that the sole distribution of news from the New Orleans track this winter would be the Cumberland Telephone Company, a local telephone

Telephone Company, a local telephone corporation.

Some persons, who may have been pool-room proprietors, wondered how racing reports were going to be telephoned from New Orleans all over the country. They didn't know, perhaps, that, if rigged at either end with telegraph instead of telephone apparatus, telephone wires will carry messages that are ticked off quite as well as those which are talked off.

When the New Orleans meeting opened, in the latter part of last month, the Cumberland Telephone Company had plenty of telegraph operators at the track. There was a sort of general understanding that many of the operators had been employed, up to a few days before, by the Postal pupple. The wires of the telephone company, it was said yesterday, ran from the track to a point in the air a short distance outside, where they made connection with the Postal wires, which carried the reports to Paine's office in Cincinnati, where one couldn't bet on a horserace any more than he could at a Methodist prayer meeting.

But from Paine's office the racing news was transmitted by telephone to nearby poolrooms, or sent over Postal wires to other offices of Paine's in different parts of the country and disseminated from there by telephone. It is said that Paine's New York headquarters is in West Forty-second street, not a million miles from No. 125, where the Hon. Peter De Lacy, according to the directory, runs a broker's office.

It was said yesterday that the Paine telephone-telegraph company has a similar arrangement at the Oakland track and will one have at Ingleside and also at the Hot Springs track when it opens. The understanding among the poolroom men is that the Western Union company will have the other Hot Springs track. A Sun reporter asked the source of this information how the New York poolrooms, for instance, were getting the betting, entries, names of jockeys and reports of the races at the Los Angeles track, where there are only Western Union wires.

"Don't ask me," was the answer. "Go ask the Western Union people. We're getting what we want all right; and we're getting it by telegraph right into the rooms. We couldn't well do business any other way. I guess, though, that those wires were originally intended for talking wires. Where they get married to the telegraph wires I don't know, and maybe the Western Union folks don't know, but there's a splice somewhere, all right."

At the office of Vice-President Bradley of the Postal Telegraph Company, in the Commercial Cable building, it was said yesterday that he was out of town, somewhere in the West, and it was not known when he would return. He had been, it was said, as far west as California. It was said yesterday that the Paine tele-

The principal creditors are the estate of James M. POLITICS STIR PASTORS. The Rev. J. H. Wiley Criticises the President for the Crum Appointment. At a meeting yesterday of the Brook-lyn and Long Island Preachers' Society a paper was read by the Rev. W. J. Thomp-son, pastor of the Simpson Church, on the "Thanksgiving Proclamations of the Governors." The Rev. W. H. Lawrence, in the course of remarks on the manner in

Dr. Wiley said:
"I think I am as good as the President of the United States. Napoleon used the big stick and you know the result. Mr. Lawrence referred to the Crum incident.

I think the attitude of the President could not but be offensive."

"The brother will please let politics remain in the background," interrupted the chairman, the Rev. A. W. Byrt. In an aside to clergymen who were anxious to get a word in, the chairman said: "Now, brehren, be seated: be calm."

word in, the chairman said: "Now, brehren, be seated; be calm."

"I think his attitude most offensive," continued Dr. Wiley, when peace had been restored. "Especially offensive to the right thinking men and women of the South. Suppose he were to nominate some man for the Collector of the Port of New York who was objectionable to a large majority of the people and against whom the rank and file protested, and suppose the Senate, knowing local sentiment, declined to confirm that nomination, what a howl of indignation would arise if that nomination were persisted in year after year. We must remember that the Southern people have rights that must be respected. Mr. Rooseveit says that he is himself half a Southerner. I wonder which half. We people of the South because we were defeated three to one do not intend to stay defeated. And we are just as deeply in love with the old flag as any other section, I will say right now."

"Now, brethren, no more." said Chair-man Byrt. "This is all. I will not permit another word."

Half a score of ministers were striving for permission to talk, but the chairman succeeded in getting order and carrying on the business of the session without further digression.

THREE NEW PATTERSON JURORS. Intimation That the Prisoner Will Not Go

From twenty-two talesmen examined three jurors were secured for the trial of Nan Patterson, which began all over again yesterday before Justice Davis in the Supreme Court, Criminal Branch. Thomas H. Harmer, a bank teller, was the first juror chosen, and he will be the foreman. The other two are William J. Lee and Thomas Farrell.

There were 200 talesmen in court when Nan was brought over from the Tombs. A great number of them showed that they had no great desire for a seat in the jury box. The evidence produced at the mistrial gave many of them what they considered a good excuse. That was that they had read so much of the testimony, and so carefully, that they had formed decided opinions.

fully, that they had formed decided opinions.

When the first jury was drawn the prisoner showed that she was not in favor of elderly men being on the jury. Mr. Harmer is 61. She also seems to prefer to have married men decide her fate. All talesmen examined yesterday were asked if they were physically capable of standing a trial that might last two weeks. Mr. Levy, Nan's counsel, indicated by his questions that no defence will be made unless it is absolutely necessary. He also indicated that she would not go on the witness stand. One question Mr. Levy asked Juror Lee was:

"If it was shown that this defendant did not know what she was doing at the time Young was shot, would that have any weight with you?"

"This is the first time that the defence has suggested insanity as a defence for this crime," said Mr. Rand quickly.

"Who said anything about insanity?" said Mr. Levy.

"I wouldn't have mentioned it unless you had introduced it," said Mr. Rand.

Mr. Levy said he had no idea of offering insanity as a defence.

GOLD TAKEN FOR EXPORT, Although the Bankers Say There's No

Profit in It From Exchange Rates. The gold export movement was resumed yesterday by the engagement of $1,000,000 of gold bars at the Assay Office for shipment to Europe, and the practical engagement of the bars (some $750,000) which may be turned out at the assay office up to Friday. The engagement, which was by Goldday. The engagement, which was by Goldman. Sachs & Co., caused some surprise at the banks, because rates of exchange were some thirty points under the profitable shipping point. The $1,000,000 was paid for and will probably go out to-day.

Reports that the gold was intended to meet payments on the Japanese bonds taken here were denied and the general impression was that it went out at the behest of the German and French bankers who are preparing to float Russia's coming loans.

Lawrence Turnure & Co. received a shipment of some 1,000,000 francs from their Paris house yesterday, this being part of a contract for $600,000 in gold, some of which has already been received.

The Sub-Treasury shipped $500,000 to San Francisco yesterday and $300,000 to New Orleans at the request of banks.

RUN CLOSES BUFFALO BANK. Supt. Kilburn Forces the German to Shut

Down-The German-American Safe. BUFFALO, N. Y., Dec. 5.-The doors of the German Bank were closed at 11:10 o'clock this morning by State Superintendent of Banking Kilburn. The doors were closed "because of a run which is constantly increasing and the inability of the management to procure sufficient funds to meet

The German-American Bank, which sustained a run last week, is still doing business, and it is said it is not likely that its doors will be closed.

The Buffalo Clearing House Association shortly before noon to-day issued a statement that it would advance all the money that might be needed by the German-American Bank to meet demands upon it. This was done immediately after a reorganization of the German-American Bank had been effected. This reorganization eliminated the Appleyard interests and substituted local men of standing.

When the German Bank was closed there was a long line of depositors before it waitin g to draw out their money. The run on this institution is believed to have been induced by the fact that President Emory of the German-American Bank is also president of the German Bank.

An investigation is now being made into An investigation is now being made into the affairs of the German Bank.
Superintendent Kilburn said that he thought the German Bank would not be able to resume. He said that A. E. Appleyard, the Boston and Philadelphia banker who controls banks in various places, had $650,000 worth of paper in the German Bank. It also was stated that the reason the Buffalo Clearing House Association would not stand behind the German Bank was because it would have required at least $5,000,000 to carry it through.

The Buffalo banks have been calling on the New York banks for funds to strengthen their reserves, but local bankers looked for no serious trouble. The German-American Bank, the National City Bank, the National Bank of Commerce and the Hanover National Bank were the New York correspondents of the closed bank.

WONDERFUL CURE OF SORE HANDS

By Cuticura After the Most Awful Suffering Ever Experienced.

EICHT DOCTORS

And Many Remedies Failed to do a Cent's Worth of Good.

"About five years ago I was troubled with sore hands, so sore that when I would put them in water the pain would very nearly set me crazy, the skin would peel off and the flesh would get hard and break. There would be blood flowing from at least fifty places on each hand. Words could never tell the suffering I endured for three years. I tried everything that I was told to use for fully three years, but could get no relief. I tried at least eight different doctors, but none of them seemed to do me any good, as my hands were as bad when I got through doctoring as when I first began. I also tried many remedies, but none of them ever did me one cent's worth of good. I was discouraged and heart-sore. I would feel so bad mornings when I got up, to think I had to go to work and stand the pain for ten hours, and I often felt like giving up my position. Before I started to work mornings I would have to wrap every finger up separately so as to try and keep them soft and then wear gloves over the rags to keep the grease from getting on my work. At night I would have to wear gloves in bed. In fact, I had to wear gloves all the time. But thanks to Cuticura, the greatest of all great skin cures. After doctoring for three years, and spending much money, a 50c. box of Cuticura Ointment ended all my sufferings. It's been two years since I used any and I don't know what sore hands are now, and never lost a day's work while using Cuticura Ointment.
